

CH TAN

BA, University of Portsmouth, UK

Bachelor of Science in Management, University of Science, MY

CH Tan started in 1997 to 2003 with Global Trading & Corporate Planning with sogo sosha based in Tokyo, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Singapore in hard disc, semiconductor, chemicals, engineering plastic, e-commerce, recycling energy saving, automotive, retail & franchise, health care & medical.

In 2003, He was in Government policy of Science, Technology and Innovation think tank. Established BioPerak initiative Joint Venture with State Economic Development Corporation and Swiftlet Eco Park Group. Engaging biotechnology companies in Japan and GLC Singapore namely Temasek Life Science, AVA, Bio One Capital, Merlion Pharmaceutical, Nimura Genetics Solutions, etc.

He is involved in various projects in Malaysia for bio prospecting, aquaculture, palm oil plantation and structure deals for both GLC and PLC.

Now holding several key positions in private companies and NGOs such as Group Executive Director of Swiftlet Eco Park; Vice Chairman of Federation of Interest Scheme Operators Malaysia Berhad; Secretary General of Malaysia Bird's Nest Upstream and Downstream Industry Association; Board of Advisor, Youth Entrepreneur Society, The University of Nottingham; Formerly President of Japan Trade & Investment in Emerging Economies - Malaysia.

Currently, Mr Tan is the Co-Founder, Group Executive Director and CEO for Royal Bird's Nest (Cayman) Limited. He is also invited for many public seminars to share his thoughts about Innovation and Technology, both CSFs for SME in Malaysia.